

WHATS NOW STREETS, STORES AND SIGHTINGS

Handle with care

An attractive knob on a door is akin to icing on a cupcake – the deal sealer! Check out Tattva Art's new range in mat nickel, mat gold, antique brass and patina.

EXOTIC WOOD

Feel it to believe it – the Durian natural veneers are as real to the touch as they are to look at. The inlaid wooden surfaces can be used on the wall, door and furniture, apart from the floor.

MUST EXPERIENCE

LIFE OF A KING

La Sorogeeeka redefines royalty with its makeover of the Presidential Suite

It's always the case – you bag a prestigious project and apart from the challenge of doing it well, you are saddled with a near-impossible deadline! Anjali Goel, Managing Director & CEO, La Sorogeeeka says, "We had 30 days to renovate the suite at the Ashoka Hotel, from scratch to finish but we accomplished it in 20." She further explains, "Inspired from the classic Indian richness, we tried to recreate the old magic – a place where you could feel the regal touch." That's unmistakable here – luxury. Picture this: 3,000-sq ft of extravagance replete with silver accessories, zardozi work, crystal embellishments and Afghani rugs. What we love best – the master bedroom with the hand-carved headboard of the bed that spans the entire wall, finished with silver leafing. ♦
